

The Swedish Fulbright Alumni Association (SFAA) proudly invites you to a mixed mingle on Thursday 2 September in the presence of US Ambassador to Sweden, Matthew Barzun."

The Fulbright program is an educational exchange program, created by Senator J. William Fulbright after World War II to increase international exchange in higher education and understanding between the US and the rest of the world. "

The Swedish Fulbright Alumni Association in cooperation with the Fulbright Commission of Sweden and the US Embassy are proud to invite you to participate in a mixed mingle event that brings together the world of politics, business, culture and the academics of Sweden. "

The event will be opened by the US Ambassador to Sweden, Mr Matthew Barzun who will speak about Sweden - US relations and the upcoming US election. At the event, an outstanding former Fulbright alumnus will also receive the Swedish Fulbright Alumni of the Year Award. "

A UHk 'Ufri b was appointed ambassador to Sweden by Barack Obama after having done volunteer work for his presidential campaign. Matthew Barzun is not yet 40 years old, born in New York City and is a business executive who besides his political career is known for his work with CNET Networks."
